

There are three main segments in a club night.

Handbook Time: A time when the children memorize Bible scripture and earn awards for their achievement. Clubbers can also learn their verses at home.

Game Time: We play unique games that are designed to help the kids exercise, develop teamwork skills, and to have fun.

Council Time: A time for the children to worship God through music and Bible messages.

What is Awana?

Awana is a ministry that reaches children and teens with the gospel of Christ and to train them to serve God.

We have three main events during the year!

Awana Games and Sparks-A-Rama
This event is a time for fun games that clubbers participate in, with other clubs around the southern Nevada area.

Who Is Awana For?

Everyone!
This Includes Children,
Teens and Adults.

Bible Quiz

This event is a time for clubbers to show what they have learned in Handbook time. The clubbers will be showing off their knowledge with clubbers from clubs around the southern Nevada area.

Awana Grand Prix

A time for clubbers to build pine wood cars for a race against other clubbers in the church. Parents may help the clubbers build the cars. The racers are split into separate classes that they will be
